Dear members of the European Hidradenitis Suppurativa Foundation e.V.,

The EU General Data Protection Regulation will enter into force on May 25, 2018. Our Society will have to make some changes in order to comply with it.

If you want to continue to receive information about our activities, events and membership issues, and to be updated on upcoming academic and educational events, you must reply to this email by May 24, 2018. Simply click on “Reply” in your email programme and write “yes”.

By sending this reply, you are consenting to our use of your data for the stated purposes, namely for information and communication purposes.

We guarantee that we take privacy protection, and the protection of your personal data, very seriously, indeed. We will use your data solely in order to send you invitations to events, to inform you about the work of the Society, to forward Society communications and to manage our membership and donor records, to collect membership fees, and to generate donation receipts. The list of members will only be forwarded to the professional organizer of our conferences so that the members can register at the reduced EHSF membership fee.

Only if you provide your data and agree for their use as mentioned above, we can continue to contact you from May 24, 2018 and to maintain your data in our lists. Your consent must be freely given. The data you provide us, including your name, address, email address, telephone and fax numbers and in special occasions the bank account details, will only be processed by us internally. Your data will only be stored for the time necessary to perform the activities specified above.

Your data will then be erased unless we are under a statutory obligation to keep it. You have the right to request access to your personal data at any time. We will also rectify your data at your request, should an error have been made in connection with its storage. We will of course also erase all your personal data at your request, provided this does not conflict with any statutory obligations. Should that be the case, we will lock your data with the effect that it can no longer be processed or used. You also have a right to object to these practices and a right to be provided with your data in electronic form. You furthermore have the right to complain to a supervisory authority responsible for data protection.

You may withdraw your consent at any time. Such withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out on the basis of your consent prior to its withdrawal.

With kind regards

Prof. Dr. med. Christos C. Zouboulis
